Valley Gardens and Pump Room. Harrogate is a fashionable inland watering-place, noted for its celebrated medicinal springs. Situated in the moorland district of the West Riding of Yorkshire, it possesses an atmosphere remarkable for its purity and invigorating properties. Many health-seekers annually visit the town, and, after "drinking the waters," a favourite constitutional is through the prettily laid out Valley Gardens, close to the Old and New Royal Pump Rooms. Some 300,000 water-drinkers and 60,000 bathers have been numbered at Harrogate in one season.
